Why buy Xerox® production systems from Toshiba?

It's more than a device—it's a partnership that powers your business.

The Power of Choice. The Confidence of Toshiba.

Your organization runs on print. You can't afford downtime, inconsistent service, or a vendor that doesn't understand your environment. That's why Toshiba now brings you Xerox's best-in-class production print technology—delivered with the same trusted partnership, expertise, and service you already know.

This isn't just about adding a device. It's about giving you a single source for everything—from desktop printers to office MFPs to high-volume production systems designed for more advanced print applications—so your entire print environment works seamlessly.

✔ One partner. Complete portfolio.

✔ Xerox® production performance.

✔ Toshiba service you trust.

✔ Built for high-volume print.

Why Toshiba? Because expertise matters.

- One Partner, Complete Portfolio: From desktop printers to office MFPs to production systems, Toshiba now covers every print need under one roof.
- Unmatched Service & Uptime: Our nationwide factory-certified team keeps your devices running at peak performance so your business never misses a beat.
- Proven Process, Trusted People: We've built our reputation on reliability, responsiveness, and relationships. That doesn't change—it only gets stronger.

Partner technology, selected with purpose.

- Toshiba complements its portfolio of MFPs and software solutions with carefully selected partner technologies that meet our standards for performance, reliability, and long-term support.
- Every system is backed by Toshiba's factory-trained service organization—so you get consistent support, accountability, and confidence in your production environment.

Why Xerox? Because performance matters.

- Best-in-Class Technology: Xerox® production systems are recognized industry leaders for speed, color accuracy, and finishing versatility.
- Built for High-Volume Workloads: Designed for demanding high-volume environments that require consistent, professional output—job after job.

The Toshiba advantage: more than a vendor—a partner.

When you choose Toshiba for your Xerox® production system, you're not just buying hardware—you're investing in a strategic partner who understands your business, anticipates your needs, and delivers solutions that scale as you grow.
